

Deborah “Deb” Trombino

May 23, 1952 – March 23, 2020

Deborah S. Trombino died on Monday, March 23, 2020, at the age of 67. She was born on May 23, 1952 in Lyons, NY, the daughter of William and Dorothy Lasher Schlee. She and Louis J. Trombino II were married on April 16, 1978.

Deb held a Bachelor’s degree from SUNY Geneseo in 1974. She earned her Master’s degrees in Special Education and Learning Disabilities from Nazareth College in 1978.

Deb taught in the Palmyra-Macedon School District for 30 years. She taught 7th grade Social Studies and substituted for several years after retirement.

She was a member of the Palmyra Garden Club. She received the Board of Education Award and participated in the Boy Scouts and her Church’s youth group. She had served as an elder at Western Presbyterian Church.

Deb was initiated into the Omega Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma International in 1991. She served on the Pi State Membership Committee and was on the 2017 Convention Registration Sign-In Committee. For Omega, she served as Parliamentarian, 2nd VP, 1st VP and President from 2004-2006. She was Chair of Research/Historical Records and Program Committees. She was a member of Historical Records, Membership and Scholarship Committees several times. She was a loyal member of the Omega Book Club.

She loved skiing, baking and antiques. She especially loved having a cup of coffee at the Muddy Waters Café.