

NYSO DKG Omega Chapter

November 15, 2022

King's Catering

5:00 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. Social time and members placing and labeling their auction items.

5:45 1st Co-Vice President Helene Goodberlet opened the meeting with the introduction of guests. Renee Durso brought her cousin Darlene, mother Sylvia Day and her sister Michelle Hodgeman. Gail Rumsey brought Linda Jones, our guest speaker from our April meeting and owner of Essence of Fresh Hill Farm. Evie Bottorf brought Lou Cunningham. Linda Upchurch brought her daughter Ashlee Sweers.

Business meeting was called to order by Helene Goodberlet, 1st Co-Vice President. Attendance 28 members and 7 guests. October minutes were accepted.

Correspondence was read, including a thank you from Lois Ludwig for the cards and thoughts she has received. Also read was a letter of resignation from Mary Lou Lawrence. Mary Shelly made a motion to accept her resignation, Renee Durso seconded it to accept resignation with regret. Those in favor said aye, ayes had it and the motion was carried. A letter will be sent to Mary Lou accepting her resignation with regret.

Standing Committees that our President Dawn Scales has not met with yet will be contacted soon.

Treasurer report was read by Phyllis Frantel, balance on hand 10/31/22 was $9,671.48.

Gail Rumsey asked for interest in caroling on December 14th. at Ewing Continue Care at 4pm.

The next newsletter will have new website updates, winter activities and the date for the Executive Board Meeting. In addition, it will have an update on the East Central Area Council vendors for the October 2023 meeting.

6:30 1st Co-Vice President, Jan Astles adjourned the business meeting.

Gail Rumsey said the blessing for dinner. Gail Burr donated the Pink Pig and the winner was Sylvia Day, guest and mother of Renee Durso. Centerpieces were donated by Linda Jones. The winners of centerpieces found a # under their chairs.

The Grants-in-Aid Auction for our Scholarship Winners began at 7pm.

DKG song was sung at 8pm.

Respectfully submitted by,

Linda Upchurch

Secretary